THE HUMBLEST HUMBLENESS

"For everyone who exalts himself shall be humbled and he who humbles himself shall be exalted."

Jesus invites us to humble ourselves by taking the lowest place (Lk 14:10) and by inviting "beggars and the crippled, the lame and the blind" to eat with us (Lk 14:13). Most people take Jesus' words as a suggestion and encouragement to be humble and help the poor. Jesus, however, indicates that His words are to be taken much more seriously when He concluded His command with the words: "You should be pleased that they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid in the resurrection of the just" (Lk 14:14). Jesus' call to humility and service is of ultimate significance.

us to humble ourselves, it means much, much more than these words coming from anyone else. Jesus washed the feet of the apostles (Jn 13:4ff) and "humbled Himself, obediently accepting even death, death on a cross!" (Phil 2:8) Jesus has humbled Himself by giving Himself to us in Holy Communion. He is so humbled that He doesn't look like God or even like a man. He looks like bread and wine. When this crucified, eucharistic God-Man speaks of humbling ourselves, He speaks with a depth and love far beyond anything we have ever heard.

Humble yourself — by
When Jesus commands Jesus' standards.

Bene Merenti

Today Bishop Stephen will be at St John's next Sunday at the 11am Mass to present the Papal Medal - Bene Merenti - to Mary Doogan and Joan Sweeney in recognition of 50 years service as 'tea ladies'.

Do come along to join in the celebrations - there will be a wee reception in the hall after Mass.

Congratulations to Joan and Mary - and our grateful thanks for their wonderful years of service in the parish.

Prayers for the victims of the recent earthquake in Italy

On behalf of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Dunkeld in Scotland, and especially on behalf of the Italian Communities of Perth and Dundee in my Diocese, I would like to express my condolences and solidarity with all the Italian people and especially those most affected on the occasion of the recent devastating earthquake.

The prayers of our people and the offering of Holy Mass for those who suffer and mourn can be assured. As someone who lived in Italy for a long time and came to know and love Italian culture and her people I feel personally for those who are suffering.

With every blessing and prayer.

Responsorial Psalm

Go out to the whole world;
proclaim the Good News.

Gospel Acclamation

Your words are spirit, Lord
and they are life:
you have the message of eternal life.

Niespodziewana zmiana miejsc

Carlo Caretto w książce „Ponad rzeczami” napisał: „Kiedy dotrzemy do bram raj, po kilku tysiącach lat regularnego czyśćca i będziemy się tłoczyć u wejścia wśród krewnych, znajomych i przyjaciół a anioł Boży, przeciskając się pośród nas będzie wołał: Wszyscy na swoje miejsca! – to wówczas wszyscy rzucimy się w kierunku ostatniego miejsca i tłok się zrobi nie przy wejściu, lecz w najdalszym kącie, zwłaszcza jeżeli będzie pogrążony w cieniu. Zdarzy się coś dokładnie odwrotnego niż to, co dzieje się tu, na ziemi, kiedy w mieście wsiadamy do autobusu i wszyscy chrześcijanie, nie wyłączając siostr zakonnych, rozpychają się łokciami, żeby wejść przed innymi?”. Czy w niebie ci, którzy tu wypychali się na pierwsze trony, będą honorowani przez Jezusa, jak tego się domagali na ziemi od innych? Czy ci, którzy tu noszą czcigodne nakrycia głowy, mankiety, epolety, sygnety, tytuły, odznaczenia i jeżdżą swoimi limuzynami, będą zażywać wyjątkowego szacunku od Jezusa? Niby wszyscy o tym wiedzą, że tak nie będzie, ale nikt się specjalnie nie kwapi w cień pokory. Ci, którzy w tym świecie są ostatni, w tamtym będą pierwszymi. Jezus wiedział, że każdy wybiera sobie najdostojniejszą pozycję na uczcie. Szkoda, że my nie widzimy, jak bardzo walczyliśmy o to, by nasze zdanie się liczyło, by nasza osoba doznała szacunku! Nawet kiedy wypowiadamy opinie o innych, to najczęściej w krytyczny sposób. Dlaczego? Bo w ten sposób, nie mówiąc nic o sobie samych, okazujemy się lepsi. Gromadzimy się wokół tych najpopularniejszych, pomijamy mało znaczących, mizernych, nieudaczników. Chcemy partycypować w czymś autorytecie. Chwalimy się, że znamy osoby sławne i wstydzimy się niekiedy naszych rodziców, cytujemy mądre książki i nie mamy odwagi powiedzieć ani słowa o swoich wadach i pomyłkach. Próżność, jak sama nazwa wskazuje, jest próżnią, pustką, nicością i dlatego potrzebuje uniformów, pióropuszy i orderów. Rosyjski malarz Nikos Safronov zarobił mnóstwo pieniędzy, malując postacie rosyjskiej elity w bogatych uniformach sprzed wieków. Rzecz ciekawa, że inni potrzebują rozbierania się do naga, by zwrócić na siebie uwagę! Cokolwiek by człowiek nie uczynił, bez ubrania, czy też w szatach królewskich, nie jest w stanie ani ukryć swej dumy, ani się jej pozbyć. Trzeba jeszcze wspomnieć o pysze pokornych. Izaak z Niniwy odróżnił pokorę, jaką ludzie starają się zachować na zewnątrz, od pokory, która jest darem Ducha św. Gdybyśmy chcieli gruntownie przyjrzeć się tej pierwszej to u korzenia zobaczylibyśmy zakamuflowaną ambicję bycia lepszym od innych przez demonstrowanie świętej imitacji pokory. Życie ideałami rzadko pokrywa się z życiem w prawdzie. W żadnej przestrzeni pycha nie dochodzi tak do głosu jak w sferze religijnej. Nawet modlitwa bywa często podświadomym narcyzmem, nawet z liturgii można uczynić teatr, nawet w szybce monstrancji można przeglądać się jak w lustro, sprawdzając, czy włosy są w należytym porządku, nawet pisząc o pokorze, można myśleć, że już się ją posiada.

Sunday Reflection

Tydzień Modlitw o Powołania

Tydzień modlitw o powołania kapłańskie i zakonne przypada w tym roku od 18 – 25 września. Msza św. w intencji nowych powołań będzie odprawiona przez Bp Stephena Robsona 19 września o godz. 7pm w Katedrze św. Andrzeja w Dundee. Zapraszamy do wspólnej modlitwy w tej jakże ważnej sprawie Kościoła powszechnego.

Ostatnie chwile wakacji...

Dobiegają końca nasze tegoroczne wakacje i znów zapełnią się nasze szkoły i sale wykładowe, dzieci i młodzież wracają do nowych planów lekcji, rodzice do pracy i niezbędnych obowiązków. Po raz kolejny możemy powtórzyć to stare powiedzenie że „wszystko co dobre szybko się kończy”. Wracając do szkół i uczelni, naszych miejsc pracy i naszych zacisznych mieszkań nie zapomnijmy też o naszym parafialnym kościele, który niech będzie co niedzielę miejscem mojego spotkania z Panem Jezusem. Tenże Jezus niech napełnia nas nowymi łaskami na kolejny rok szkolny i akademicki i niech błogosławi każdej naszej polskiej rodzinie na kolejne miesiące nauki i pracy. Matka Najświętsza niech swoim wstawieniem przed tronem Bożym będzie nam wierną wspomocicielką w czasie naszych zajęć i odpoczynku. Maryjo, Królowo Polski – módl się za nami!

Collections

Many thanks for your generosity; last week's income was - Sunday collection - £1506.62 and £5; Votives Candles - £54.04; Catholic Papers - £19.27; Church Shop - £10 and SCIAF - £10.

Catholic Papers

Catholic newspapers the Scottish Catholic Observer, Catholic Herald, Catholic Times etc are available in the church porch - please take copies and share them with the wider community.

Perth Foodbank

The need for food parcels continues to grow. Since 1st April supply of parcels has increased by 37% and the number of people helped by 45%.

Although we have an adequate stock of most foodstuffs, we are in urgent need of more sugar, long-life milk, juice and treats (sweets, chocolate and crisps). Donations can be left in the Foodbank box at the back of the church after each weekend Mass.

We also urgently need more volunteers to cope with the extra demand. If you can spare a couple of hours one afternoon, please speak to Ivan Carnegie or David Smith.

Union of Catholic Mothers

Please note change of date for Carfin. This is now on Sunday 4th September. Anyone wishing to go please contact Rosanna to add your name to the list.

Ordinations and vocations

We pray for Fr Ninian Doohan who was ordained to the priesthood earlier this week and for Dr Harry Schnitker who will be ordained to the Permanent Diaconate at 11am on Sunday 4th September - for service in our prisons.

Dr Schnitker extends a warm welcome to you to join him on the occasion of his ordination.

Please keep the following student priests in your prayers:

Malcolm Hutchison as he begins his studies in the Pontifical Scots College in Rome in September;

Jude Mukuro, who will be with Mgr Ken McCaffrey in Ss Peter and Paul's, Dundee until he begins his studies in January in St Mary's College, Oscott;

Andrew Marshall who has now completed his fourth year at St Mary's, Oscott.

Children's Liturgy

Our Children's Liturgy continues on Sundays at the 9am Mass. If your child is aged between pre-school and 9 years old - they are welcome to come along.

HIGHLAND CATHEDRAL

May we, O Holy Spirit, bear your fruit,
Your joy and peace pervade each word we say.
May love become of life the very root
And grow more steep and strong with every day.

Bathed in the light of your love, oh Lord,
We are guarded by you, held in your hand,
Raised by the light of your love, oh Lord,
Your will is my one command

May patience stem the harmful word and deed,
And kindness seek the good among the wrong.
May goodness far beyond our lips proceed,
As manifest in action, as in song.

May faithfulness endure yet as we grow,
May gentleness lend courage to the weak.
And in our self restraint, help us to know,
The grace that made the King of Heaven meek.

Justice and Peace

Here I would like to indicate ... : the option or love of preference for the poor. This is an option or a special form of primacy in the exercise of Christian charity to which the whole tradition of the church bears witness. It affects the life of each Christian inasmuch as he or she seeks to imitate the life of Christ, but it applies equally to our social responsibilities and hence to our manner of living, and to the logical decisions to be made concerning the ownership and use of goods.

CARITAS - ministry Leaders and supervisors

Thirty five S6 pupils from St John's Academy have accepted the invitation to take part in the Pope Benedict XVI Caritas Awards this year.

One of the most important aspects of Caritas is the 20 hours service that they are asked to complete in their local parish and faith community.

This is an invaluable opportunity for us to include young people in our ministry and to give them a positive experience of parish life; their service can also help to enrich our own contributions to the life of the parish.

If you have been involved in supervising the work of these young people in the past, or if you lead a church group or ministry and would like to be involved, then I have two invitations to share with you:

Leaders Meeting

There will be a brief meeting at St John's Academy, Gowans Terrace, Perth on Wednesday 31st August at 7pm for priests, the leaders of all ministry areas and church groups as well as the adults who have been and would like to be (with the permission of your parish priest) involved in the supervision of Caritas Award participants.

Invitation to School

Leaders of parish ministries and Caritas Award supervisors are invited to come to St John's Academy at 11am on Monday 5th September. You will have the opportunity to meet the Caritas participants and they will have the chance to ask you some questions about your ministry.

The hope is that this will help the parish and the young people to discuss and agree suitable service for the benefit of all. If you can't make it, we would appreciate it if you would elect a representative to attend instead or inform your parish priest.

If you would like to be involved in supporting the Caritas Award in your parish please contact your parish priest or email: youth-office@dunkelldioecese.org.uk
