Tuesdays: 6.00pm-6.45pm (Confessions in Church)

The Liturgies of this Holy Week of the Christian Year can be seen as one extended contemplation recalling the great events in the final days of the life of Our Lord Jesus Christ as He willingly goes to His Death and Resurrection to accomplish for us our Salvation. We are invited to come and be present to these Mysteries; to enter meditatively into these events in heart and mind, so as to allow their significance to deepen in us and transform us.
