The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ Sunday
A : I am the living bread that came down from heaven! We know the saying, 'you are what you eat.' In the Eucharist, in the words of the gospel reading of today, it stands out clearly. In the old dispensation, during the journey of the people through the desert, God provided them manna which sustained them. They are to gather the measure that will serve their daily need. By the next morning, those who gathered excess quantity discovered that the remaining has gone bad. In the words of Jesus, 'not like the bread the fathers ate, and died.' Yes, the manna they ate was subject to decay. Jesus offered us himself. As was prophesied in Psalm 16, the Lord did not let his servant see corruption or decay. He is life and lives forever. His body did not decay. That is the same Body and Blood, he offered us as food on the Last Supper night, which we celebrate and receive daily in the Eucharist. Because he lives, we who receive him worthily, will live. Let us draw near his table, offer this sacrifice, and feed on the banquet of heaven, and so, live in Christ now, and in eternity, live with him forever.

Requesting Mass: The Gift of the Mass

The Catholic Mass stands as the most powerful form of prayer, a divine conduit through which we can offer our deepest intentions. By requesting a Mass for someone, we engage in a profound act of intercession, praying on their behalf. Pope Paul VI once proclaimed, "The Mass is the most perfect form of prayer." Its immense power has wrought countless miracles and conversions throughout history. Offering Masses for specific intentions or individuals is a cherished tradition within the Church, carrying a spiritual significance that is beyond measure.

When we seek Mass for a particular intention, we invite divine presence to intervene in our lives and the lives of others. This sacred act unites our prayers with the ultimate sacrifice of Christ. Each Mass is a moment to adore, seek forgiveness, give thanks, and ask for divine help, making it an extraordinary treasure of the Church. The Holy Mass is for both the living and the dead.

If you wish to request a Mass, simply fill out an envelope now available at the back of the Church. After filling, can place it in the sacristy, hand it to one of the Fathers, or drop it in the letterbox at the Fathers' House.

Food Bank: There will be a collection of your donations to the Food Bank in the Church porch/hall after Mass on 6/7 June weekend. A letter of THANKS for us all from the Food Bank is on the notice board in the hall. There will be no bacon rolls in June, July and August. Normal service will resume 1st Sunday in September. Many thanks.
